

Medicaid Work Requirements Don't Work

West Virginia Center on Budget and Policy

2018 Budget Breakfast

West Virginia has made significant progress under the Affordable Care Act

Number of Uninsured West Virginians (thousands)

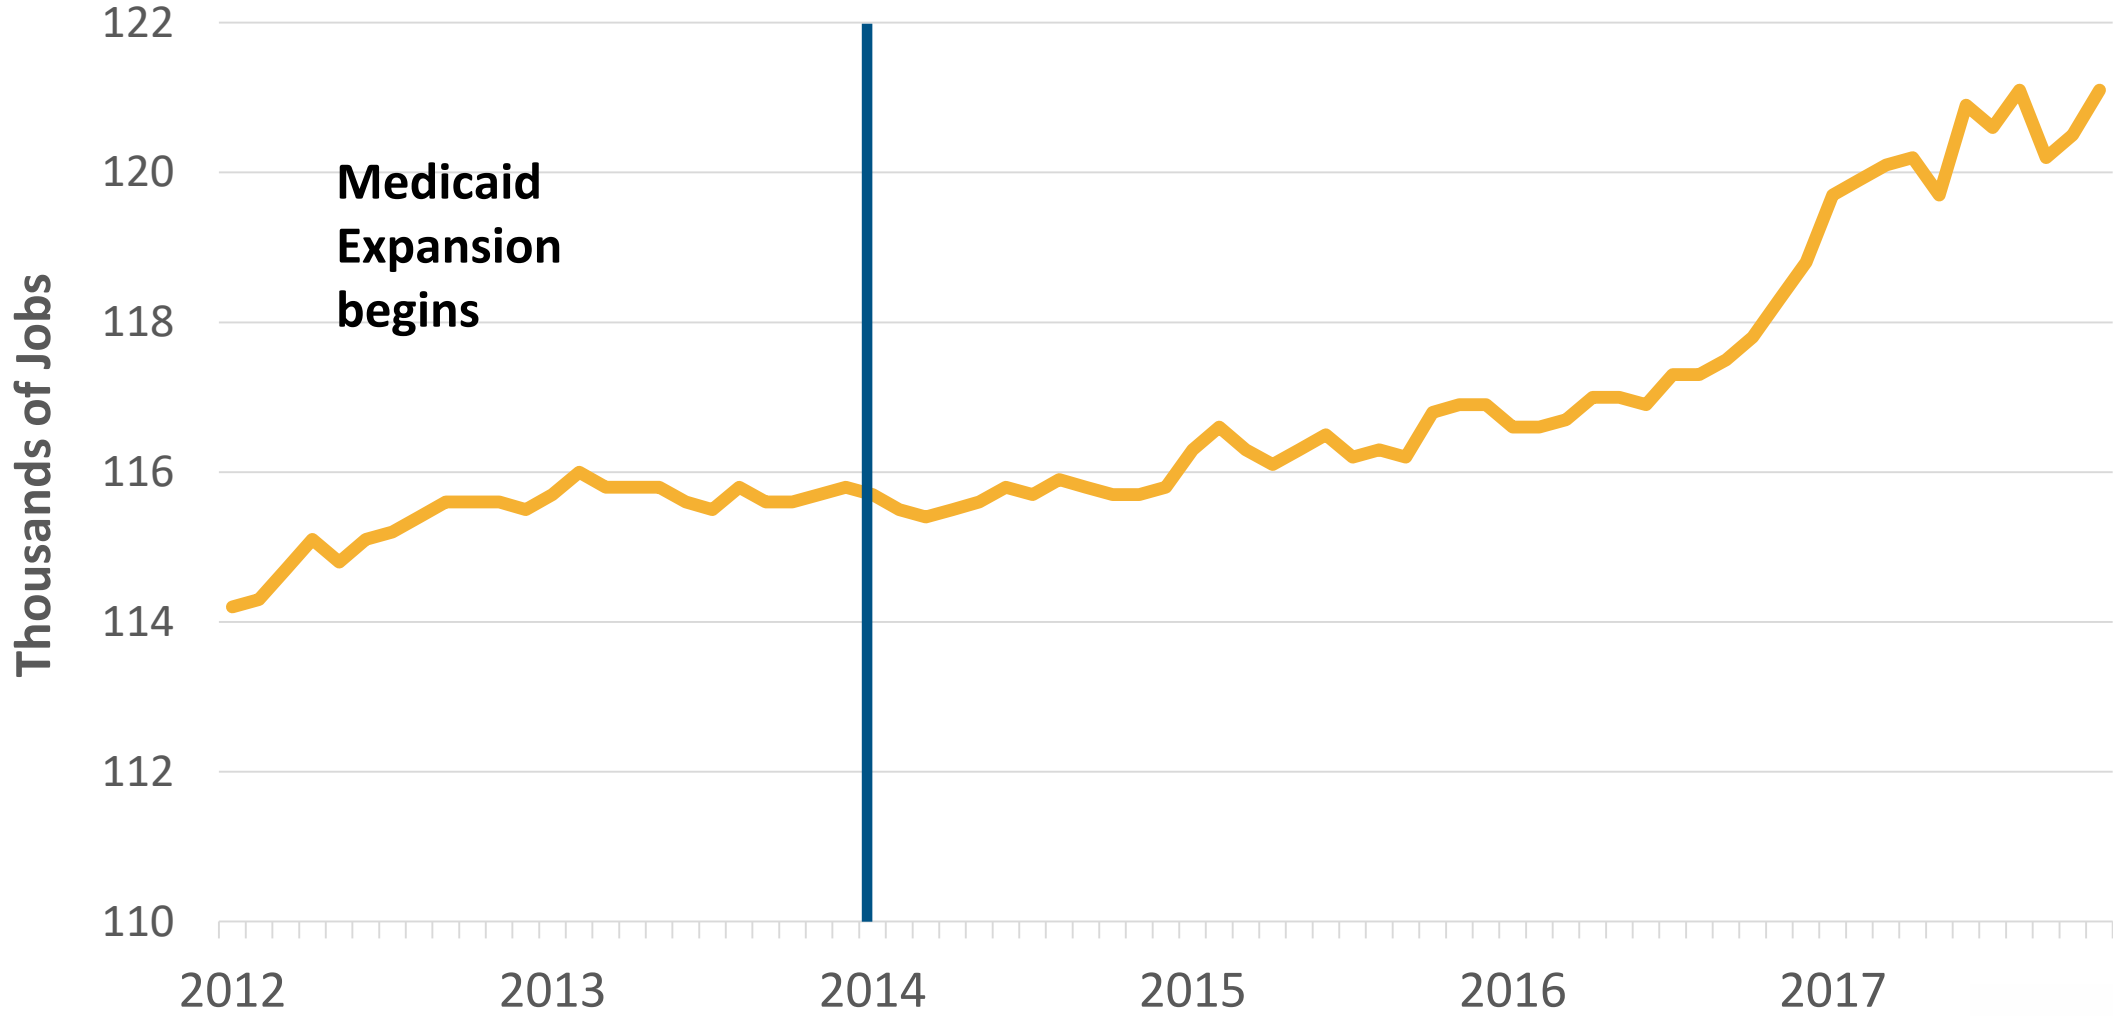

Source: U.S. Census Bureau

WVPOLICY.ORG

Medicaid Expansion Has Helped Grow Health Care Jobs in West Virginia

Health Care and Social Assistance Jobs in West Virginia

Source: U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, January 2018 (seasonally adjusted)

More than two-thirds (68%) of non-disabled adults on Medicaid are in working families

Total non-SSI adults ages 19-64 enrolled in Medicaid in West Virginia

Source: Kaiser Family Foundation analysis of March 2017 Current Population Survey

Most Medicaid recipients who are not working are ill, disabled, or taking care of family

Main reasons for not working among non-SSI, adults Medicaid recipients in WV, 2016

Source: WVCBP analysis of 2017 Annual Social and Economic Supplement of the Current Population Survey

Tens of Thousands of West Virginians Would Lose Medicaid Coverage Under a Work Requirement

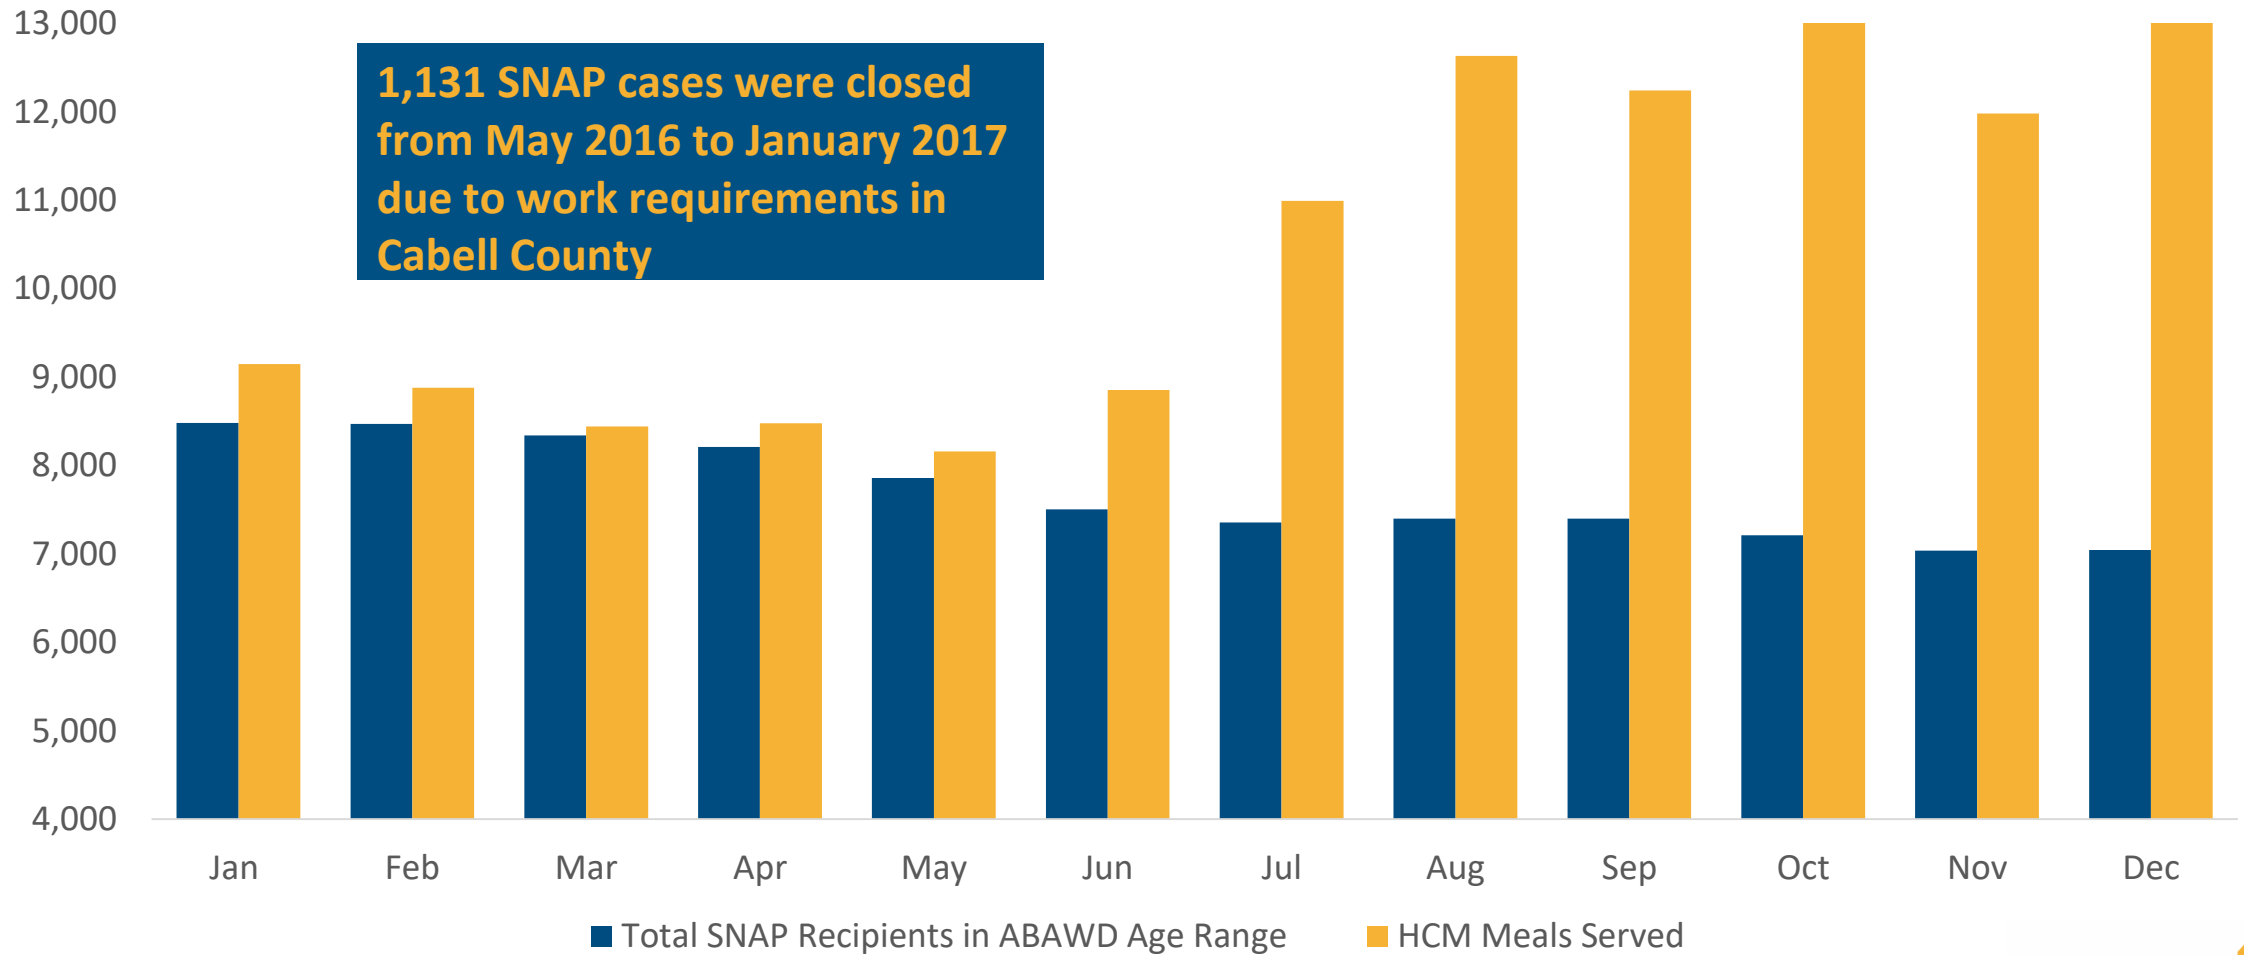

Total Adults Enrolled in Medicaid Expansion, Actual and Estimated Under a Work Requirement

Source: WVCBP analysis of WV DHHR data and Kentucky 1115 Medicaid Waiver Application

SNAP Work Requirements Have Increased Food Insecurity

Cabell County SNAP Caseloads and Meals Served by Huntington City Mission

Source: WVCBP analysis of 2017 Annual Social and Economic Supplement of the Current Population Survey

WVPOLICY.ORG